

LET'S START FROM THE BEGINNING

So... it's really, really happening! If you're reading this, it probably means that you're planning for the most epic day of your life this far. There is seriously no bigger compliment I could receive than a couple trusting me to capture their love story. But first thing's first. We have to make sure we're a good fit, right?! I want to be more than just one of your vendors. I want to know everything about you two! I want you to both feel as comfortable with me as you would just chilling with your besties. So what does all of this entail?

It means I want to get to know you and your boo inside and out. Why? So that I can take that and engrave your deepest, authentic personalities into each photo. I want to document every imperfectly perfect moment. The moments that you're there for and the ones you might miss. I want to capture that moment you glance at each other across the isle, your mom or dad trying to hide that single tear they knew was going to sneak out, the flower girl hopped up on too many sugar cookies flailing petals everywhere, your crazy windblown hair as you nervously read your vows to each other. I want to capture everything. The really big moments and also the little ones.

I want you to feel like by the end of this crazy adventure, that you can trust me like a best friend. That you can trust me with capturing every special moment of your love story and everything in between. Thank you so much for thinking of me to document your wildest adventure. Now enough of me being sappy-

LET'S GET THIS PARTY STARTED!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW MANY PHOTOS WILL I RECEIVE?

For weddings, I deliver a minimum of 400 photos. For sessions, the minimum is 50 photos. My mission for every session and wedding is to get you as many beautiful, high quality photos as I can. I do not regulate a maximum amount you can receive, and I assure you that I will never leave anything out! All weddings & sessions are so unique, so the numbers are always changing.

DO YOU GIVE RAWS?

The simple answer is no. I know it can seem like something you may think you want, but a photographer's raw photos are only half of the artistic process. Without that essential editing magic, I'd be sending you my unfinished project. I promise to never leave any photos out! If you feel like there was a particular moment that I missed—just ask! I'm more than happy to go back through my images & add it to the collection. I will never let you miss out on any memories!

A man and a woman are standing on a path covered with fallen autumn leaves. The man, on the left, is wearing a dark green jacket and brown pants. The woman, on the right, is wearing a white long-sleeved top and a grey and black patterned dress. They are holding hands and looking at each other. The background is a dense forest with trees and more fallen leaves.

WHAT IF WE HAVE TO RESCHEDULE DUE TO WEATHER?

We can always reschedule if the weather will effect our shoot. Keep in mind, some of the best shots I get are in windy, rainy , snowy, muddy situations! It all depends on what you're up for but of course I have absolutey no problem changing a date if it's too rough outside.

WHAT IF WE NEED TO RESCHEDULE OR CANCEL?

If you've put a deposit down on a date and have to move the date, I can transfer the deposit as long as your new date is communicated 3 months in advance from the original day booked. This only will apply if I still have that day available. Anything past that will need a new deposit, and the original deposit cannot be refunded. This is in no way just another way for me to make money! The days where a session or wedding is cancelled/rescheduled are unfortunatly lost opportunities with another client if I don't have enough turn around time to book someone else. There is no refund for a cancelled session or wedding.

HOW DOES PAYMENT WORK?

I require a 40% deposit at the time of your booking to hold your date. The remaining 60% is due the day before or the day of the session or wedding. All images are only sent out after your package is paid in full. I accept payment through paypal, venmo or cash.

WHAT SHOULD WE WEAR?

Of course I always recommend wearing what makes you feel like yourself. Above all, be comfortable in your own skin! If you're that kind of person that wears yoga pants and soft sweaters all day-wear that! If you like going all out and dressing up in a beautiful, epic gown, please-DO IT. It's all about preference. I do have a what to wear guide I'm more than welcome to send you if you feel a bit lost and need help. Soft, neutral tones are always key. Always make sure to wear something that isn't too distracting (clashy patterns, bright neon colors, huge logos, etc) that doesn't take away from the star of the shoot-YOU.

WHEN DO WE GET TO SEE OUR FINISHED PHOTOS?

I usually send my clients a little sneak peak of a couple of photos from the session or wedding a couple of days after. I think it helps for you to really get pumped for all the rad photos you're about to keep forever! For your collection in full, it will take anywhere from one to two weeks maximum.

WHAT KIND OF PHOTO ALBUMS DO YOU USE?

Ok, first things first. QUALITY OVER QUANTITY. I promise you, I don't skimp on albums. Which is why I use Milk Books. You get a spread of 48 pages in a photo book-choose the color and style of the album cover, and get to choose your favorite photos from our session and the wedding. Boom. That's it, and you leave me to the rest of it. It's actually that easy. Which is why I always recommend trusting your photographer with creating your albums. It's less stress off your back, more time to snuggle and enjoy the honeymoon, am I right?!
